German Advance Into Russia Continues and Two Regiments of Russians Are Captured.

The aerial activity on the Franco-Belgian front is reaching a state of great intensity such as usually precedes important offensive movements. The Germans are making notice of this in their reports, telling today of great numbers of air duels in which they claim to have brought down fifteen Entente airplanes.
On the ground there is no indication of any change from the conditions prevailing for a number of days past. Raids on a large scale are continuing and in one case the Germans attempted a real attack which the French broke up before the Germans reached their lines.
Whether the American batteries are still in service with the French is not brought out by the Paris statement.

LODGE BREAKS LOOSE WITH A DENUNCIATION

Says Government Price Fixing a Failure and Fuel Administration Composed of Amateurs.
Fixing Price of Coal Only Stopped Part of Coal Production, He Insists.

By Associated Press Dispatch.
Washington, February 27.—Government price fixing as a method of preventing profiteering has proved a failure, Senator Lodge of Massachusetts, declared today in giving the Senate the conclusion he had drawn from the recent investigation of the coal and sugar shortages.
In the case of coal, he said, price fixing had only served to curtail production, while the food administration's price plan for sugar had kept western beet sugar from the eastern states and retailers of coal and sugar had profited.
Blame for the coal shortage, Senator Lodge laid to the fuel administration's price fixing plan, together with the railroad difficulties and the closing order he described as a complete confession of impotent failure.
He denounced the fuel administration as "an unnecessary agency," which was "composed largely of amateurs."

JOY RIDE COSTS DAYTON MAN SUM NEAR $3,000.00

Reckless Driving of Steve Kender, Dayton Saloonist, Proves Expensive Business—Trouble Occurred on Jamestown Pike. Case Is Compromised.

Steve Kender, Dayton saloonist who last summer drove his big touring car into the Grant Rankin machine on the Jamestown pike, overturning the machine, fracturing Mrs. Rankin's arm, and causing other injuries, and who subsequently was indicted on three counts for reckless driving, assault with intent to kill and exceeding the speed limit, has just paid nearly $3,000 for his part in the affair.

Kender and his attorney came to this city Tuesday and when he paid $1470 to Grant Rankin for damages and expenses, and $1,000 and expenses, amounting in all to about $1-230, he was allowed to go his way after paying a fine of $25 and $15 costs for reckless driving, to which charge he entered a plea of guilty. The other two indictments were nolleed.

In the agreement the man in paying Mr. Rankin for damages and expenses, took the Rankin car, which was badly torn up.

The prosecuting witnesses were represented by Attorney Lee Rankin.

The affair which proved so costly to Kender occurred several miles out of this city while Mr. Rankin and family of near Octa were on their way to Washington. The Kender machine a huge touring car, laden with six or eight men, including Kender, came tearing down the road with the speed of an express train, and is alleged to have deliberately rammed the Rankin car, striking it twice and hurling it from the road into the ditch.

Because of the apparent deliberate attempt to wreck the car, and the recklessness displayed by the Kender machine, the affair speedily terminated in the location of the offending parties, and speedy action on the part of the grand jury.

Much credit for the apprehension of the guilty party is due to Sheriff Jones, who, by careful inquiry and comparison of data, located the owner of the offending car.

EVERY PERSON MUST DO PART NEXT TUESDAY

Scores of Workers of the Fayette County War Work Council Will Take Part in Drive for Sale of Thrift and Savings Stamps.

Every Person in Fayette County Is Expected to Buy Savings Stamps and be Ready on Tuesday.

On Tuesday of next week—March 5th—the first drive of the Fayette County War Work Council for the sale of War Savings and War Thrift Stamps will be conducted, and every house in the city and county will be visited on that day by the patriotic workers, none of whom receive a single cent for their labor.

And every person in the city and county is expected to be ready to do their part when the workers appear, and to remember that they are not only making a safe and sound investment, but are doing something toward aiding the United States win the war.

It is no time for slackers in anything that means the successful prosecution of the war, and the campaign for finances is a most vital part of winning the war, it is pointed out.

The following letter has been sent to each of the precinct chairmen in Fayette county, showing just what is expected of them and their co-workers, and of the public in general:

Washington C. H., Ohio, Feb. 25.

My Dear Chairman:

We are mailing supplies to you for your precinct and have used our best endeavor to see that you have plenty of each kind of blanks for your workers.

The success or failure of the drive of March 5 depends primarily upon the Chairman of the different precincts and we cannot too strongly urge you to see that each one of your workers is furnished his supplies and instructions. You personally know that it is a movement of vital importance and we are trusting to you to inject a sufficient enthusiasm and pep into your canvassers to insure a successful campaign.

In this connection we want to give you a few of the weighty reasons for buying:

PATRIOTISM. At best, it is certainly cheerful patriotism when you can buy a tax free government bond and at the same time help your country win the war against autocracy.

RETURN ON INVESTMENT. The bonds bear 4 percent interest, compounded every three months, free of taxes, making a better investment than owning property or loaning your money out on note.

SAFETY. You can answer this question by saying that if one of these War Savings Certificates is not safe, your money is no good, for the same Government capital is back of both, and if the Government fails neither one will be of any value.

Impress upon your canvassers that each house in the precinct must be visited and that a thrift card with one or more stamps should be purchased and started for each member of the family. Once started this movement is bound to grow and the more stamps your workers sell the more good they are doing for their neighbors and for their country.

Please see that each worker has a plentiful supply of the post cards and the pamphlets explaining, "What the stamps are and why you should use them," so he can explain to the purchaser anything, which is not clear about the stamps.

Included in the supplies is a pledge sheet and it is imperative that each one of your canvassers should be furnished with one of these sheets. You can readily see that some of the people will not be able to subscribe their quota, consequently others must make up the deficit. Instruct your men to secure as many subscriptions for $1,000, $500, $250, $100, $50, or any other amount up to $1,000 maturity value. If a man wants to buy the full limit, take his check for $828, and the stamps will be delivered to him.

We do not want it said that Fayette county failed at this critical moment and we are trusting to the energy and fidelity of you Chairmen to see that we "go over the top" with a winning subscription.

Yours for success,
M. S. DAUGHERTY,
County Chairman.

RED CROSS ACTIVITIES

Good Work of "Pythian Sisters' Unit."

The Pythian Sisters' Red Cross Unit is doing excellent work and its Tuesday afternoon's meeting followed by supper and an enjoyable social hour, is a marked event of the week. At supper the fathers and children join the busy workers, and the number attending grows constantly.

Although but a few weeks since organization January 22nd, the Unit reports the making of 75 bed shirts; 11 sweaters; 4 pairs of socks; 35 body binders.

Miami University Girls in Red Cross Work.

That the war is having a practical effect on the work being done in the educational institutions of the country is again evidenced by a shipment of goods and material to the Red Cross by students in the classes of Home Economics at Miami University. Through the local auxiliary of the Red Cross these Miami girls have just sent, among other things, fifty sweaters, twenty-five pairs of socks, five helmets, forty wristlets, and fifteen dozen hospital bed shirts.

While much of the work is done by students in the department, volunteer service, which is eagerly offered, is responsible for much of the showing that is being made by the Miami women.

Aside from the work being done to aid the conservation of food, the use of war recipes in the cooking classes, the preparation of authorized war menus, the department is doing much to reduce the clothing budget of the homes by instituting courses calculated to conserve wool by showing the students how to utilize old garments in the making of attractive dresses.

SNUG SUM REALIZED FOR THE RED CROSS

The play, "Back to the Farm" was well rendered Tuesday night by the New Holland High School for the benefit of the Farmers' Institute.

Each player carried out his or her part in a most pleasing and entertaining manner.

A special feature of the evening was the selling of a quilt at Auction for the benefit of the Red Cross, between acts.

The quilt was made and donated by Forest and Bryant, tailors, and was bought and returned live times. The sixth time, it was resold to Mr. J. G. Dick a farmer, who had already purchased it once before and returned it. In buying it twice Mr. Dick paid $40 for the quilt.

In all the sales amounted to $164, a very gratifying sum for the Red Cross.

No griping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.

If you have a "dark brown mouth" now and then—a bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver and are constipated, you'll find quick, sure and only pleasant results from one or two little Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime.

Florida

It doesn't require an expert to discover the commercial value of the gem after it is cut and polished and set in the band of gold or platinum—anyone can do that.

It does, however, require the eye which sees straight and the mind which reasons clearly to see the possibilities in the rough gem.

It doesn't require the successful business man to see the marvelous wealth and the tremendous usefulness of a finished country, but it does require the far sighted man to see, beyond the present, down through the long, narrow corridors of the coming years the possibilities of the new country. It is they who open up to man, in the aggregate, the blessings of a great and rich land. They are the men who must have faith in their judgment because the majority of men will not concur in that judgment with them.

When one who has not demonstrated his capabilities in that respect undertakes to prophesy the future of a new country he does no more than indulge in idle speculation, unless he except the operation of the general law that nature doesn't waste anything and nature doesn't spend ages building places of no value in the great plan of creation. Recognizing that great law we know—all of us—that every place, no matter how worthless appearing, will be good some day.

Since the discovery of America down to the present time, there has been a flood of literature telling us of the beauties of Florida. It is needless to do more than to say that nothing in prose or poetry, which tells of Florida's beauty is exaggerated. As a place of tropical splendor it is more than anyone, by written or spoken word, has attempted to picture. As a play-ground for millionaires, as a place for tourists to be relieved of their loose change Florida has arrived. It is without doubt the most expensive tourist resort, but the tourist gets more for his money in scenery than any other place in America, covering anything like the area, if he does get little to eat and little in physical comfort, aside from the glorious sunshine and warm tropical air which nature furnishes free.

As a commercial proposition? That's another matter entirely. Hundreds of millions have been lost by people in modest circumstances trying to make a living in Florida. For the middle classes—the people who have to work, Florida is not yet available. How soon it will be no man can tell but that it will be someday, every man does know.

The east coast of Florida, from St. Augustine to Key West is one of distinctive charm—a paradise to enjoy—and hundreds of thousands do enjoy it every winter.

From Jacksonville south—straight down the coast beyond Miami is a good automobile road. In that long stretch of nearly four hundred miles, however, are several places "not so good." From Fort Pierce south to Miami and beyond, though, is a road which cannot be excelled, smooth as a floor without a rise worthy to be called a hill. Paralleling the Indian river, the automobile road passes White City, St. Lucie, Walton, Jensen, thence back from the shores of the river, to the new town of Stuart and returning again to the shore line near St. Lucie Inlet, at Sewall's Point, where the Indian and the St. Lucie rivers, north and south forks, join to make, with the Inlet from the ocean one of the most famous fishing grounds in the whole world and where men come from every section of the nation to yacht and fish. Multi-millionaires have joined with nature to make the whole region from Fort Pierce to Saint Lucie Inlet a paradise on earth which the dreams of men who have not seen it, cannot picture. From Sewall's Point on down to Jupiter Inlet, where the battleship Oregon at the outbreak of the Spanish-American war, before the days of wireless, first reported to an anxious nation that the trip around the horn had been safely made, thence on through the back country to Palm Beach, Fort Lauderdale and Miami the road passes through a land which makes one feel that there must be a fountain of youth here.

That whole section, roughly estimated at one hundred and fifty miles long by from three to five wide, is developing rapidly as a home section—a place for people to come with the birds to escape the discomforts and the dangers of northern winters—and why not?

Of course in that section there are scores of towns or stations which I have not mentioned.

But it was about Florida as a business proposition that I proposed to write, yet one can't write of Florida without dwelling upon its beauty.

Florida is emerging now from the most villainous exploitation with which the ingenuity of theiving speculators has ever cursed any section of America and is beginning to be taken at what it is worth. There are a few unscrupulous individuals, still operating, who use the magic name and fame of God given Florida to conjure the hard earned dollars from the pockets of honest working people, but people are beginning to understand Florida, to realize that even here, man must earn his bread by honest toil; that even beautiful Florida, like every place else on earth has its draw backs, that Florida is yet a millionaires' play ground and a place for tourists to see.

They are beginning to realize that since its discovery, it has beckoned and disappointed, that nature, beautiful to see in her majesty of raiment, it is still unwilling to retreat from the swamps and bayous, abandon the insects and reptiles to their fate and surrender dominion to man. But men are still coming forward in ever increasing numbers, responding to the call of need and desire and, someday, Florida will surrender to the man with the hoe but many will be the disappointments that will precede the coming of that day.

The millions of Flagler and his associates have blazed the trail and established a foot hold. In their wake now will come the toilers. Drought, floods, freezes and heat, still baffle the efforts of men but inch by inch they are gaining in the war of "attrition" until nature will be compelled to surrender.

This is only a mere general statement of a multitude of comprehensive impressions with which Florida overwhelms the stranger.

How the hopes of the pineapple growers were dashed away by nature just as success was within grasp, how thousands of acres now covered with the remnants of blasted pineapple plants, how men who netted a profit of a thousand dollars per year per acre, raising pineapples, are now reduced to poverty through the destruction of their crop, the sad spectacle of hundreds of abandoned and decaying packing houses along the railroad tracks, scores of abandoned storehouses and homes, tell the story of one of man's colossal failures in Florida and about that volumes could be written but it's not a pleasing story nor a story which would do justice to Florida. How man's playground at Palm Beach has risen to riotous success the most stupendous pleasure ground of the hemisphere if not of the world, how fairy land has come to earth at Palm Beach for those who have the bottomless purses filled to overflowing, where in the office of a hotel whose corridors are more than half a mile long rising tier upon tier covering acres and acres, multi-millionaires must stand in line to receive attention at the desk over which more than a million dollars a month is paid by the pleasure loving rich—well that's another story too.

How the magic city of Miami happened to be builded where it is and why the city is and what it will probably be is another story too. Millions have been lost in Florida by those who tried hard but couldn't "make it go." Millions have been made by those who didn't work nearly so hard, but used "better judgment" and millions have been spent in Florida for pleasure and Florida has given value received.

Those who have scored successes in Florida are the men who have accepted Florida for what it is and not tried to make it what it is not. Those who have failed are the advance guard of the millions of infantry which sooner or later will take Florida under their dominion, now that the artillery of the millionaires opened a gap in nature's defenses.

Leaving the magnificent Deering Estate at Miami behind, passing through the splendid garden sections about Ft. Lauderdale and Boynton where broad acres of cabbage and onions, beans and tomatoes, are fenced about and partitioned off by palms and oleanthers to come once more upon the prodigal rich at play in the building and grounds of the Poinciana at Palm Beach one must wait to realize that even the riotous pleasures, which Palm Beach affords, the great purpose is apparent and slowly but certainly the plan for Florida's unfolding, in a panorama of practical worth as entrancing as its beauty is now, mysteriously proceeds on its way, baffling alike the impatient and the curious.

Poetry For Today

THESE WOMEN WHO WALK WITH THE SOLDIERS

These women who walk with the soldiers—
Their sweethearts, mothers or wives
Are doubtless like all other women
In manners and morals and lives.

The women are average women,
The soldiers are average men;
But I see in their mien and their faces
What I never shall see again.

And, somehow, it seems to my thinking,
There's a difference, strange as true,
That envelopes them like a halo—
Heroic, spiritual, new.

And over it all a glamour—
A pallor—a shadow—a flame;
I know not how to describe it,
But I know it is not the same.

Whatever it is, it entralls me,
It sinks to my heart like a knife,
To see a young khaki-clad soldier
With his sweetheart, mother or wife.

Oh, the plain and the beautiful faces!
Spirit-strange they seem to gaze,
As they walk through the streets of the cities
With their men, these Last of Days.

I think there's enough of my mother
Mixed in with my masculine dress
To know how I'd feel, were I woman,
And my sweetheart were going Across.

Second Cousin of McKinley.
Wellston, O., Feb. 27.—Neighbors broke into the home of Mrs. Fred Pelpanik, second cousin of President McKinley, and found her dead. Mrs. Pelpanik was the widow of one of the first photographers in this city. Fear that her only son, Fred, would be drafted into the army had caused her considerable worry recently.

Thrift Stamp Boosters Meet.
Columbus, Feb. 27.—Plans of conducting campaigns for the sale of war savings and thrift stamps in a five-state group were discussed here when directors and representatives of war savings committees from Kentucky, West Virginia, Pennsylvania, Delaware and Ohio conferred. J. D. Lyon, Pittsburgh manufacturer and banker, is federal director for the five states; he, with all other state directors, is donating his entire time to the war savings movement. Participating in the conference were H. P. Wolfe, Ohio war savings director, and Jamea W. Faulkner, publicity director.

FORM FEDERATION

New York, Feb. 27.—William Bryan and other prominent temperance leaders from all parts of the country formed, at a meeting here, a federation of the majority of the agencies which are working in behalf of country-wide prohibition under the name of the National Dry Federation. Dr. Charles Scanlon of Pittsburgh was elected president. The delegates were said to represent 25,000,000 persons. While it was said no difference of opinion had developed as to the end sought, it was announced that the Anti-Saloon league and the W. C. T. U. were opposed to joining the federation on the ground that they might lose their identity under the rules of the new organization. Both organizations had representatives at the meeting and agreed to co-operate. Three committees were named for the purpose of adjusting differences and to outline plans for the dry campaign.

"FRIED" COLLARS OF THE COPS MUST GO

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Cleveland, O., February 27 — With the announcement by Chief of Police Frank W. Smith, of a change in the style of uniforms to be worn by Cleveland policemen, came rejoicing among the city's finest. The announcement carried with it the abolition of the white laundried collar.

The old fashioned roll collar uniform will be supplemented by a military design, a style adopted and approved by police of other cities. Velvet and mohair collars bearing the insignia of their rank will be in vogue among the officers.

The Art Department of the Browning Club presented its last program for the year Tuesday night, with Mrs. Jesse Blackmer in charge. This department has contributed largely to the year's success, and last night's program gave a finale of high standard.

A beautiful violin solo, "Crimson Blushes,"—Lester was played by Miss Helen Dixon, accompanied by Miss Zinna Wilson.

Miss Minnie Light gave a carefully compiled and most interesting paper on the life and work of our late American sculptor, "St. Gaudens."

His first important works erected in this country was the Farragut in Madison Square New York, the Shaw Memorial in Boston, the Lincoln statue in Chicago and the Sherman at the entrance to Central Park in New York.

Long after the deeds of Farragut, Shaw, Lincoln and Sherman have become a part of misty history, this cycle of historical monuments, of St. Gaudens will live in proof of the mighty struggle waged and won by the soul of a mighty people.

In the last years of his life, he made the beautiful Phillips Brooks Memorial in Boston.

Mrs. P. G. Carpenter read in her usual charming manner and with interpretive genius the first act of George Bernard Shaw's comedy "Arms and the Man."

The club would have enjoyed listening to the entire story.

Mrs. Mary Burgett's lovely contralto voice was much enjoyed in two solos, "The Guest," and "A Necklace of Love," Miss Mabel Briggs accompanied.

Miss Jean Howat presented a fine paper, showing appreciative acquaintance with Artists and Art, her subject "How to Choose Pictures."

Man likes to see pictures on the walls of his home and this desire may be satisfied by the original by Rembrandt or the inexpensive copy.

In many works of Art we see the pictorial history of civilization, as in the pictures of Millet. One of the most famous portraits is "Mona Lisa." Whistler's "Mother" is also a favorite. Landscapes bring into our home the freedom of the open, especially when painted by such masters as Corot.

The present day popularity of etchings seems to have been brought on by the great War and the destruction of the wonderful Cathedral. Many of the beautiful historical scenes of this country are now being preserved for posterity by etchings.

Back ground hanging and grouping are to be considered in placing pictures. To hang pictures on a level with the eye is a good rule. "To choose well from the good pictures, that you can hang on your wall, and that you will care to keep there, and look at with your mind through your eye, that is your privilege."

The D. of A. pie social at the home of Mrs. Maggie Long, of Washington Avenue, Tuesday night, was a decided success and much enjoyed by a crowd of between forty and fifty.

Miss Mary Wilson won the prize in the contest.

There was piano music and the hostess assisted in serving appetizing refreshments by Mrs. H. L. DeWitt, Miss Mary Wilson and Mrs. R. Grober.

Only the late hours broke up the merry gathering.

Affairs both patriotic and social are scheduled for Friday and Saturday afternoons, when the Mothers' Circle will be sponsors for a Belgian Babies' benefit also in the nature of an afternoon tea, at the Bending room on the corner of Court and North streets.

The purpose is to raise funds with which to purchase materials for the making of layettes for Belgium mothers. The layettes already made will be on display and the work explaining them will be on display.

Tea will be served from two to five both afternoon and a number of attractive features are being planned, together with Victrola music.

Mrs. Buck has generously offered to donate flowers for a flower booth and a "Hoover booth" will be unique in its interest.

Everybody is invited and it is expected that the tea will be the most popular place in town Friday and Saturday afternoons.

FUNERAL SERVICES MR. GEORGE HADLEY

A large number of relatives and friends gathered at Wesley Chapel Tuesday afternoon for the funeral service of Mr. George Hadley.

Rev. J. Vernon Stone, of Trinity M. E. Church, Chillicothe, former pastor of Grace M. E. Church officiated, assisted by Rev. Harry Hadley, rector of St. James' Episcopal Church, Zanesville, a nephew of Mr. Hadley. The hymns were sung by the Wesley Chapel choir.

Throughout the services were of quiet beauty.

Rev. Stone made an excellent talk and spoke with much appreciation of the cultured New England gentleman with whom he had so often visited in the days of his pastorate here.

Rev. Hadley read the scriptures and the memoir.

Burial was made in the Washington cemetery; the pall-bearers, Messrs. Eph Worthington, M. J. Sturgeon, James Coenerrill, Frank Tilton, Charles Kearney and Will Craig.

The local order of the I. O. O. F. conducted their ritual burial services at the grave. The Odd Fellows of Wilstach Lodge, of New Martinsburg, of which Mr. Hadley had been a member, attended in a body.

The floral remembrances were beautiful. In addition to those sent by relatives and friends there was an immense basket of Spring flowers from the neighbors; sprays from the Wilstach Lodge, Wesley Chapel Mite Society, the Men's Bible Class of Wesley Chapel, and Fogles Grocery.

Relatives here for the funeral were Mrs. Wm. Thomas, of Hillsboro, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Adams, of Columbus; Mrs. Minnie Jones and daughters, Misses Fannie and Josephine, of Sabina; Mrs. Kate Pavey, grandson, Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Ramie Toops, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Haines, Mr. T. W. Smith, of Buena Vista.

ANOTHER SECTION OF DIARY KEPT BY CAPTAIN HARDWAY

The latest portion of Captain O. E. Hardway's Diary, kept while he is in France, has been received by Mrs. Hardway, and was written one month ago. The Diary continues:

Sunday, January 20. — Went over to the town where Company M is stationed to get some books that I had left, and also to pay a visit to the company. Captain Peck says that he is well pleased with his new company, and that everything works like clock work.

Came back home in time for dinner. Billie went over to another town to see if he had any mail there. He had not received any mail for sometime, and was anxious to hear from his mother. I spent the afternoon in writing letters and reading.

Monday, January 21.—Nothing of interest today, only the usual instruction work. Had a few men detailed to help the Supply Sergeant do some packing as we are going to move to a new station tomorrow, where the Third Battalion will be all together. It will make it much nicer than we have had it heretofore.

Tuesday, January 22.—We packed up our equipment and changed to our new station today. We started at 9 a. m., and were joined by L and M at 9:45 and reached our new station about an hour and a half afterward. The cooks went ahead of us and had dinner prepared when we arrived at the new station. Haven't been over the town yet, but it looks like we have a very good town to live in. Company K will be in barracks when we get them finished. The frame and weatherboarding are up but we will have to put the roof and floor on.

Wednesday, January 23.—Began our regular instruction work this morning. Company K having to complete their barracks, put 50 men to work on them which cut our drill strength down. Got word today that I was to report over at Hq. for General Court.

Thursday, January 24th.—Had a detail of 50 men working on barracks today, the rest of the company going out to drill. Lt. Dunnan, our automatic rifle specialist informs me today that the Company K boys are much the best men on the automatic rifle. Think it must be true as he asked the Major if he could divide the classes so that some of them could get on the rifle range to shooting with it.

Friday, January 25.—Went over to Hq. this a. m., to attend General Court. Lieut. Beightler going with me. Had quite a number of cases to try. We finished all of them today, and cleaned up some that we had left over. Being the ranking officer present I was president of the Court.

Saturday, January 26.—Had our regular Saturday inspection this morning. After inspection we issued clothing to the men. Some of our heavy baggage has been coming in within the last two or three days. I notice a steady improvement in the Saturday inspections. They are gradually getting better.

We moved into our barracks this morning also. This will keep the company together more and will be much better.

SEDALIA'S REAL "BAD MAN" AGAIN IN TOILS OF LAW

Sedalia's "bad man," Edmond Swaney, is back in prison once more. This time he is accused of entering the C. C. Hewitt store and the Price & Son slaughter house in Sedalia, and walked off with goods and hides to the value of quite a snug sum.

Swaney is an old offender, and has been locked up on various charges. Once he was arrested by a man who, while enroute to this city, stopped to have his car repaired, and later discovered that most of the articles carried in the car had been stolen. At another time he was arrested for stealing clover seed from a farmer near Sedalia.

A few days ago when the burglary was committed in the usually quiet village—near the northern border of Fayette, Swaney was suspected at once, but his whereabouts was not known. However, Sheriff Weimer of Madison county sent out a few tips which resulted in Swaney's arrest in Dayton, and his transfer to the Madison county jail.

Swaney and Joseph Armbruster offered the hides to E. H. Leman, at Dayton, who kept them in conversation until the arrival of the police who had been notified at once. Upon the arrival of officers, Armbruster broke away and disappeared, but Swaney was held. Ray Price, of Sedalia, who accompanied Sheriff Weimer, identified the 12 beef and one hog hides as being the same that were stolen at Sedalia, and sold them to the Dayton man for $182.

Swaney and Armbruster roomed in Dayton, and in their rooms Sheriff Weimer found the following articles stolen from the C. C. Hewitt department store at Sedalia: 8 blankets valued at $49; suit of underwear, $2.50; 5 belts, $2.50; 1 vest, $2; pair shoes, $6.50; Remington rifle, $18; pair overalls, $1.25; 2 Ingersol watches, $2; old coin, $4; 1,000 cartridges, $4; 2 pair gloves, 50 cents.

The prisoner was arraigned in Squire Green's court, where he waived examination and in default of $500 bond was placed in jail to await the action of the grand jury.

Among tools found in possession of Swaney were enough automobile tools to stock a garage.

It is said that he is at this time a parole prisoner of the Mansfield reformatory. In August, 1917, he was released on furnishing a $500 bond in Squire Green's court, on a charge of larceny; disappeared at once, and has been a fugitive from justice ever since.

GRIPPE EPIDEMICS IN MANY DISTRICTS

The annual epidemic of the gripple and sore throats, which usually visit the county during the late winter, has been keeping the doctors busy during the past week or ten days, and hundreds of persons have been ill during that time, although at the present time the epidemic is not so bad as it was a few days ago.

In some districts the affliction which appears contagious is in the nature of a very severe sore throat which invariably makes the rounds of the community before it disappears.

PENNSY SELECTS PARADE STREETS

Seventy-one Pennsylvania drafted men stopped in this city for supper and to await the evening train east on the Wellston division of the B. & O., Tuesday evening, having arrived over the B. & O. earlier in the afternoon.

While in this city the men were marched about the city in order to obtain much needed exercise, and attracted a great deal of attention while parading about the city. Each man wore a badge indicating that he was a Pennsylvania drafted man headed for Camp Sherman. They had been assembled at New Castle, Pennsylvania, and had been most of the day on the road to camp.

The men were a splendid group of fellows, and were pleased with the neat appearance of the city (not including the unclean streets).

After taking supper at the Cherry Hotel the men, who had come from all walks of life, returned to the station and later departed for Camp Sherman.

RADIUM IS NOW OFFERED TO ALL FOR RHEUMATISM

This Great Rheumatic Curative Property Can Now be Tried at Home at a Cost No Greater Than for Ordinary Medicines.

Radium is one of the most efficient curative properties for rheumatism known to medical science.

But—Radium treatments in the past have been enormously expensive and the cost has prohibited the average man or woman who suffered from rheumatism from trying it. Either the sufferer had to journey to some hot springs to drink the water containing the radium emanations or go to an institution known as an "Emanatorium" where the radium treatment was taken by inhaling the gas—or emanations—given off from a quantity of pure radium.

Now, however, the radium treatment is not expensive. Sufferers from rheumatism can try radium right in their own homes and the cost is no greater than the cost of ordinary medicines.

The manufacturers of Tanlac, the most widely known general system tonic in America, have placed a medicine for rheumatism on the market and it contains radium.

Tanlac Rheumatism Treatment, under which name the new medicine is being introduced, is complete. It consists of a tablet for internal use and a medicament for external use. Each of the tablets for internal use produces four mache units of genuine radium emanation.

If you suffer from the aches and pains and twinges of rheumatism get Tanlac Rheumatism Treatment today and get a real medicine for this dreaded complaint. You can get Tanlac Rheumatism Treatment at any good drug store where you get Tanlac, the famous tonic.

FIRE DEPARTMENT HORSES ARE SOLD BRINGING $175.00

The two horses which for many years have drawn the hose wagon and hook and ladder wagon in this city, were Tuesday sold to S. F. Snider, of this city, for the sum of $175. At the same time the harness was sold to Ernest Rodgers for the sum of $45.

"Brownie," one of the horses, has seen 13 years of service in the fire department of the city and is in his 19th year of age.

"Billie" has seen seven years in the fire department and is 13 years of age.

With the sale of the animals the passing of the horse-drawn fire apparatus in the city passes into history, although the city still has a ladder, hose and chemical wagon to be horse-drawn. This also will probably be disposed of in the near future.

With the two motor-driven fire trucks now in the Engine House there is likelihood of both trucks being disabled at one time.

COMPANY M BOYS IN GOOD HEALTH SAYS COOK HAYS

Late Issue of the Rainbow Reveille Is Sent to Herald by Willis E. Hays, and Interesting Excerpts Are Given.

The Herald is in receipt of a letter from Willis E. Hays, cook, Company M, 166th Infantry, enclosing a copy of the "Rainbow Reveille" which has resumed publication after a two months suspension due to failure of the equipment to travel as fast by train as the boys marched overland to some new location. It is gratifying to know that Cook Hays promises to send a copy of "The Reveille" each week, and in this way liberal excerpts will be furnished to Fayette counties in general.

Cook Hays writes in part: "All of the boys are feeling fine. Tonight each member of Company M, got a Christmas package from The American Red Cross, and it surely did make the boys happy. "Sergeant Smith, Saxton, Hyer and Norcross came over today to visit the boys. They have been at school, and are all well."

The letter is dated February 3rd from "Somewhere in France." "Column O'Crumb Camouflagings" of the Rainbow Reveille contains the following rhymes: "Gas to gas, "Dust to dust, "If the 'cooties' don't get us, "Sweet Caporals must."

"Sergeant Jack Horner, "Sat in a corner, "Inspecting his underwear; "With forefinger and thumb, "He picked out a 'crumb' "Remembering, 'You're one "Of a million, I swear."

For the information of those who do not know it may be stated that "cooties" and "crumbs" are the body lice which are among the discomforts of the battlefields. Apparently, however, these "discomforts" are accepted as a matter of course by the plucky Americans, who have the knack of always "making the best of the worst."

From the "Answers to Correspondents" column of the Reveille, come the following witticisms:

"What shall I do when my ammunition is exhausted? Private Wright. Cease firing."

"What is the capital of Russia?—Major Hans Uppe. Thirty cents. "How can I make myself popular with my men?—Lieut. Reserve. Join another company."

"How can I enter the German lines?—Al. Lye. Disguise yourself as a sausage and roll over no-man's land, making a noise like a pretzel."

"What is a good cure for seasickness?—Corp. D. R. Atde. Give it up."

From another column of the Reveille is taken the following:

Would Change Name "Residents of Berlin Center, Ohio, where the old Fourth Ohio was encamped during the East Youngstown labor trouble, have petitioned to change the name of the village to something less Hunnish."

BROWNELL INCUBATES EGGS, THREE CENTS PER EGG. 36 16

FOUND—Bunch keys owner can have same by calling at Herald office and paying for advt. 46 16

LOST—Brown fur muff. Finder please report at Herald office. 46 16

LOST—White face cow, notify Pete Theobald or call Herald office. Reward. 45 16

LOST—Overcoat (black) J. F. D. in right breast pocket. Reward. Sam Evans, Cherry Hotel. 44 16

SOLDIERS BOYS OF COLUMBUS BEATEN BY FAST "Y" TEAM

Fifty-six to Forty-five Is the Way the Frisky "Y" Bunch Put It Over the Visitors in Best Game of the Season Played on Y Floor.

The small crowd at the Y. M. C. A. Columbus Cadet basketball game Tuesday night witnessed a rare game, in which the "Y" won, 56 to 45.

In the first two minutes of play it looked like it was all over except the shouting. The Cadets scored six points before the "Y" team got hold of the ball.

Then the local team tightened up, and the battle started in earnest. The Cadets still maintained a lead until the last quarter, then the score was 40 to 40—42 to 44—44 to 44. Then the Cadets made a foul, and were one point in the lead.

This aroused the "Y" to desperation and they quickly rolled up a score that gave them the victory.

Finneran and Butler, right forward and center, were the bright lights for the defeated team. It was through their efforts that the Cadets were able to take the lead.

All of the "Y" team played with a

DOCTOR GAVE THIS RUN-DOWN WOMAN VINOL

And She Got Well—Her Nervousness Disappeared

Flint, Mich.—"I keep house for my family of six and got into a generally run-down condition. I was weak, nervous and could not sleep, and had headache a good deal of the time. My doctor prescribed Vinol and it made me well and strong. I am a good deal less nervous and can sleep nights."—Clara Smith, 1213 W. 4th Ave., Flint, Mich.

We sell Vinol on a positive guarantee to make nervous, weak, run-down women well and strong or return their money. Try it anyway, Blackmer & Tanquary, Druggists, Washington C. H., Ohio.

And at the best drug stores in every town and city in the county.

brilliance seldom excelled. The long shots of H. Smith, left forward and center were much in evidence. He made eleven field goals. Hays, right forward, had eight field goals to his credit. The six field goals of Sollars came in a much needed time. They were all made during the last few minutes of play.

The lineup for the Y. M. C. A. was: H. Smith, if and c; Sollars, if; Hays, rf; Merriweather, c; O'Brian, lg; P. Smith, rg.

The lineup for the Cadets was: Snetzer, if, and rg; Finneran, rf; Butler, c; Smith, lg; Davis, rg.

The referee was Myers and the timekeeper, Pyley.

When the Columbus Cadets booked a game with the Y. M. C. A. team of this city they were under the impression that the "Y" team was the champion of southern Ohio—and it is deeply gratifying to know that the visitors have not been disillusioned by their little experience at the hands of the local boys.

HORSES AND MULES SOLD BY LOCAL FIRM

Patterson Brothers' horse and mule dealers of this city sold Sale Day 67 head of horses, and mules to various individuals, possibly a record sale for this section by any individual or firm.

They sold to Col. Jos. Finley of Georgetown, Ky., and Traylor & Abbott of the same place a mixed load of horses and mules. Also selling 25 head at public sale at their barn.

Privately they sold 17 head to the farmers of this section.

This firm's wide acquaintance with the horse and mule dealers of the country bring buyers daily to their barns from Kentucky, Tennessee and North Carolina.

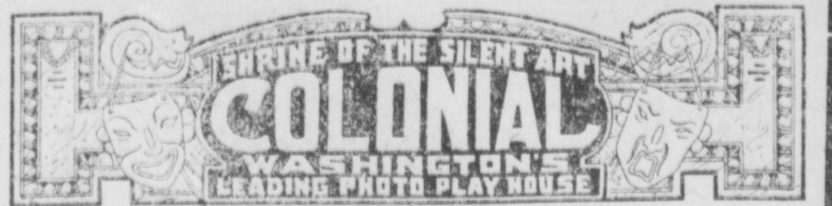

HONOR TEAMS ARE ORGANIZED

Honor teams have been organized among the boys of the Y. M. C. A. A dinner and a sweater emblem will be given to each member of the winning team and a "Y" watch fob to the boy that has the most points to his credit.

Points are given for attendance at cadet drill, conduct in the "Y", reading of good books and various other things.

Constant Sufferer Finds Relief.

"I have been a constant sufferer from kidney trouble and was down sick in bed," writes C. F. Reynolds, 412 Herrick St., Elmira, N. Y., "I commenced taking Foley Kidney Pills. In a few days I was up out of bed." Recommended for rheumatic pains, backache, biliousness, sore muscles, stiff joints, "tired out" feeling. Blackmer & Tanquary. Advt.
